06/14/2004	●	Judge Nancy Gertner : ELECTRONIC ORDER entered granting 5 Motion to Transfer Case: Plaintiff has filed a motion to transfer this case to the Central Division of Massachusetts. Plaintiff argues that the case was wrongfully removed by defendant to the Eastern District, since it was originally filed in state court in Worcester. Under Local Rule 40.1, unless a case falls into one of several enumerated categories of cases, it may be filed "in the division chosen by

		the plaintiff." Local Rule 40.1(D)(2) Here, the facts of the case do not put it within any of the enumerated categories of Local Rule 40.1(D)(1), and plaintiff has chosen the Central Division. Therefore, under the Local Rules this case should have been removed to the Central Division. Defendant argues that such a reading of Local Rule 40.1 requires this Court to place a local rule in direct contradiction with the express terms of a federal statute, 28 U.S.C. s. 101, which states that Massachusetts comprises one judicial district with no divisions. That is not the case. It is indisputable that the District Courts of Massachusetts have the power under 28 USC s. 2071(a) to "prescribe rules for the conduct of their business." The District Courts of Massachusetts have chosen to create rules for the assignment of cases which give deference in some cases to a plaintiff's forum choice. This is one of those cases. Defendant's argument that inertia leaves the case in the Eastern District unless "good cause" is shown to remove it to the Central District is misplaced. The case should be transferred to Worcester because it should have been removed there in the first place, not because of convenience or some other factor. Similarly, defendant misses the mark with its argument in the alternative that this Court should, under Local Rule 40.1(F) transfer the case to the Eastern District for "good cause," because Metro Corp.'s Massachusetts office is in Boston. While this Court is skeptical that "good cause" exists to override plaintiff's choice of forum and transfer the case to the Eastern District, that is a question for the Central Division judge to whom this case should be assigned. Plaintiff's motion to transfer to the Central Division of the District of Massachusetts is therefore GRANTED. (Gertner, Nancy) (Entered: 06/14/2004)
